

Manual 7 - Particulars of any arrangement that exists for consultation, or representation by, the members of the public in relation to the formulation of its policy or implementation thereof.

At present the department is not having any mechanism for the participation of the public in the formulation of the policy. However, in the implementation of the policy the department arranges meetings with the associations of drug manufacturers and the associations of chemists located in Delhi.

S. Subbaranayagam
ADC